Election/Restrictions

Claims in the application are 1-37.

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-21 and 31-37, drawn to a device for propagation of tissue or for preparation of implantable tissue, and method for preparing the device, classified in class 424, subclass 423.
- II. Claims 22-25, drawn to a method for preparation of a bioartificial composite useful for repair of tissues or organs in a host, classified in class 424, subclass 93.7.
- III. Claim 26, drawn to a method for preparation of tissue useful for repair of tissues or organs in a host, classified in class 435, subclass 395.
- IV. Claims 27-30, drawn to methods for preparation of tissue useful for testing and for repair of tissues and organs in a host, classified in class 435, subclass 29.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

The methods of inventions II, III and IV can be performed without producing a device as required by invention I. The methods do not require producing a device having a layer of cytoskeletal elements aligned uniformly, and a composite that acts as a template to accept a second layer of cells upon a first layer wherein the second layer comprises an organized layer oriented in the direction of the first layer.

Art Unit: 1651

The methods of inventions II, III and IV can each require different steps and/or conditions such that each can be performed without carrying out any other method to produce a different end product. The method of invention II requires growth of tissue in a host where as the method of invention III requires recovering tissue without growth in a host, and the methods of inventions II and III can be performed without using as substrate as required by the methods of invention IV. The methods of invention IV can be performed without producing a substrate having morphological characteristics of a desired tissue as required by the methods of inventions II and III.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
